

Generator Model

Model: J2440

Description:

It is a multi-functional generator to be used for the demonstration of experiment on ampere force, the working principle of direct current dynamo, right-hand rule, the working principle of alternating current generator and the working principle current generator. While in performing the experiment with dynamo, the direction of the current in the rotor coil can be shown through different colors of lights.

Made in Taiwan